Upon registering for ATD25, each registrant automatically receives an account in the mobile app. Based on your type of registration, the app will give you appropriate access to slides, handouts, and the virtual program.

If you created an account in either the online session directory or mobile app under an email different from the one you used to register, please stop by the Mobile App Help Desk, in the Grand Lobby, Level 1, to update your account to ensure you receive the correct access as a registrant.

Need help with your access key?

Select the Login button and the Forgot Access Key? option in the top-right corner. Enter your email address that you used to register and then select Retrieve Access Key. Please note: Your mobile app profile is not connected to your TD.org credentials.

This year, the ATD25 mobile app is also the virtual platform! You can access the virtual program via the app or online at atd25.eventscribe.net.

The online session directory and exhibitor directory double as a live and on-demand event platform, connecting you to streamed sessions from Washington, DC, live online sessions, peer-to-peer networking via Zoom, and a curated library featuring live and prerecorded content. If you previously built your schedule in our session directory and exhibitor directory, it will sync your favorite sessions and exhibitors to the mobile app.

Access to the virtual platform will close on August 25, 2025.

Can't wait to get started?

Search our library for on-demand sessions, that you can access at any time. Sessions recorded on-site in Washington, DC, will be available on demand in the virtual platform. All on-demand sessions will be available beginning May 28, 2025.

ATD Board of Directors

Welcome to Washington, DC and the ATD 2025 International Conference & Exposition! We are excited to gather, collaborate, network, and learn together. We hope you find your time here rewarding and enjoyable.

Offered in-person and virtually, ATD is the perfect place to reconnect with old friends and make new ones, gain valuable insights on new tools at the largest supplier EXPO in the industry, and examine career development opportunities.

With more than 200 education sessions across 13 learning tracks and nearly 10,000 attendees from more than 80 countries, ATD helps you recommit to your personal and professional growth. Don't miss ATD25's compelling mainstage speakers—athlete and advocate, Simone Biles; organizational behavior expert, author, and Harvard Business School Novartis professor, Amy C. Edmondson; and teacher, author, and entrepreneur, Seth Godin.

This year's event explores the ATD community and the commitment to your career development. Highlighting the benefits of belonging to the ATD community, we're hosting a session in the ATD Theater explaining the new online platform named ATD Community. You also can stop by the Member Lounge and ATD Central to learn about the association and its valuable benefits. Community Conversations, which are a series of discussions designed to help you connect with other TD professionals in a relaxed environment, is a great way to connect with others who share your interests.

As TD professionals, you spend the bulk of your time developing your workforce and organization. But don't forget about your personal development. The ATD Career Center is offering "Resume Roundtables," free 45-minute coaching sessions, and other career development sessions. Also, you will find Career Pathways demos in the ATD Theater, Career Center, and ATD Central.

Big news! The EXPO is now open on Sunday, giving you even more time to engage with our dynamic vendor community and discover the latest innovations. Plus, we're enhancing the experience with complimentary coffee and tea throughout the event!

We hope you make the most of everything this event has to offer. Thank you for joining us for ATD25!

Due to the professional nature of the conference and EXPO, children under 18 years of age are not permitted to attend. All attendees must wear their conference badge at all times.
